5th May 2019 - Third Sunday of Easter

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 162.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 5:27

The high priest demanded an explanation of the Apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' and they had the apostles called in, gave orders for them to be flogged, warned them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, for you rescued me.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 5:11

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation - everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia! Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people. Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 21:1-19

Glory to You O Lord

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night. It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land. As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.'

Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. 'I tell you most solemnly, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.' In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow me.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

DO YOU LOVE ME !

To make reparation for his three-fold denial Peter is asked by the Lord if he loves him three times. Then, at the end Christ predicts the type of martyrdom that Saint Peter would endure.

The Lord mandates authority to the first Pope by saying:

- 1) feed my lambs - teach all my children
- 2) care for my sheep - protect my bishops.
- 3) feed my sheep - teach my bishops.

Also during the threefold affirmation of love, Jesus and Peter use different words for the verb to love that imply different meanings making this discourse most fascinating and very human.

Q. Why were there 153 fish in the boat? Ans. Fish stand for the variety of members in the Church, God's boat. Active members keep the 10 Commandments & frequent the 7 sacraments. $10+7=17$: 1 up to 17 = 153.

In HEAVEN space, place and time will be vastly different. The spatial dimensions of our body will be perfect with glorifying splendour. The placement of dimensions shall be broader and better than we can possibly imagine. The eternal aspect of time will be comprehensive - never again will we be bored or lonely.

ALWAYS TRUST YOUR DOCTOR!

A distraught senior citizen rang her G.P. to check on her medication. 'Is it true' she asked 'that the medication you prescribed me has to be taken for the rest of my life?'

The doctor after checking his files replied: 'Yes, Madam, I am afraid so.' There was a moment of silence before the lady went on. 'Well, do you know something about my future that I don't! - because the bottle is marked: NO REPEATS!'
