16th June 2019 - Trinity Sunday

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 162. First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud: The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries - and the waters will not invade the shore - when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia: Glory to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was and who is to come. Alleluia.

Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 16:12-15

Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Catholic Confirmation

Confirmation begins with the renewal of baptismal promises and the profession of faith by the confirmands. The bishop extends his hands over the whole group of the confirmands. Since the time of the apostles this gesture has signified the gift of the Spirit. Then the sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with chrism on the forehead with the words: 'Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.' The effects are: it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation; it unites us more firmly to Christ; it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us; it renders our bond with the Church more perfect; it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross.

CONFIRMATION PRAYER

Recall then that you have received the spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear in God's presence. Guard what you have received. God the Father has marked you with his sign; Christ the Lord has confirmed you and has placed his pledge, the Spirit, in your hearts.

The Trinity by Rublev-15th century icon

The word Trinity is not in the Bible, yet all Christians believe it. It was the Catholic Church that defined the teachings of the Holy Trinity in early Church Councils.

Catholic Catechism says:

CCC 233 Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity. [Three Persons who equally possess the same divine Nature]

- Atheism is a denial of God's existence by means of argumentation that is flawed - it is natural to believe in God.
- Agnosticism claims that it is impossible to know God or anything about him - a state of indifference. Too many Aussies are agnostics.

IRISH HUMOUR

Ryan & Pat, two Irishmen, worked for the local council and were standing at the base of a flagpole looking up, when a lady walked by and asked them what they were doing. "We're supposed to find out ta height of ta flagpole. But we don't have a ladder." The woman put down her handbag, pulled out a wrench, loosened the bolts on the plate, let down the pole and then took a tape measure from the same handbag and measured it announcing: "Lads it is 6 metres long." She bid them have a lovely day as she walked away. Ryan turns to Pat and says: "Just like a woman - know it all type!" Pat responds: "Yea, we wanted the height and she tells us the length!"
