9th June 2019 - Pentecost Sunday

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 162. First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2

When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 12:3-13

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit. There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Holy Spirit, Lord of light, From the clear celestial height Thy pure beaming radiance give. Come thou Father of the poor, Come with treasures which endure; Come, thou light of all that live. Thou, of all consolers best, Thou, the soul's delightful guest, Dost refreshing peace bestow. Thou in toil art comfort sweet; Pleasant coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. Light immortal, light divine, Visit thou these hearts of thine, And our inmost being fill.	If thou take thy grace away, Nothing pure in man will stay; All his good is turned to ill. Heal our wounds our strength renew; On our dryness pour thy dew; Wash the stains of guilt away. Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. Thou, on us who evermore Thee confess and thee adore, With thy sevenfold gifts descend. Give us comfort when we die; Give us life with thee on high; Give us joys that never end.

Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 20:19-23 Glory to You O Lord

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.' After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

On Pentecost Sunday, that is, the fiftieth day after Easter, the Lord sent the Paraclete whom He had promised. On that day, the Holy Spirit came down upon the Apostles gathered in prayer together with Mary the Mother of Jesus, in the Upper Room, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues ... thus bringing back to unity the scattered races. At Pentecost the Holy Spirit came and showed Himself as tongues of fire. For He will kindle charity in us: by which we shall earnestly love God, and think little of the world. In the midst of our problems and disappointments the Church remains faithful to the mystery of her birth. While it is an historical fact that the Church came forth from the day of Pentecost, in a certain sense one can say that she has never left it. Spiritually the event of Pentecost does not belong only to the past: the Church is always in the Upper Room with Christ in her heart. The Holy Spirit, given to the Apostles as the Counselor, is the guardian of hope in the heart of the Church today.

The role of the Holy Spirit is often misunderstood. A careful reading of the Catholic Catechism can clarify matters and dispel confusion.

There are seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit and each one of them perfects one of the seven virtues. Fear of the Lord is linked to Wisdom which is the greatest gift which perfects charity. What are the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit?

HOW TO MAKE LOVE GROW

Love never just happens. One needs to cultivate love. First, love needs time. Perhaps people can fall in love in a moment, but mature love is like a tree, it grows slowly with the deepening of affection and the branching out of joys and sorrows. Love also needs words to make it real. Words resolve fights and sometimes prevents them. One may communicate in a variety of ways but it must be done with heartfelt emotion being aware of the needs of the other. Some may call that empathy. Lastly, love is not a single act, but a climate in which we live, a lifetime venture in which we are always learning, discovering and growing.

CHURCH HUMOUR

A parishioner had dozed off during the service. The minister asked: "Will all who want to go to heaven stand." All stood except the one sleeping. Then, the minister said: "Will all who want to go to the other place stand." At that, he who was sleeping suddenly awoke and stood up. Smiling, he said: "Well, padre, I don't know what we're voting for, but it looks like you and I are the only ones for it."

I know that faith is like a root
That's tough, inert and old;
Yet it can send up its green shoot;
And flower against the cold.

I know there is a grace that flows.
When all the springs run dry.
It wells up to renew the rose:
And lifts the cedars high.

James McAuley

Helpful Humour

I went to the bookshop and asked the sales woman, 'Where's the self-help section?' She replied, "If I tell you, it would defeat the purpose!"
