Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Amos 6: 1. 4-7

The almighty Lord says this: Woe to those ensconced so snugly in Zion and to those who feel so safe on the mountain of Samaria, those famous men of this first of nations to whom the House of Israel goes as client. Lying on ivory beds and sprawling on their divans, they dine on lambs from the flock, and stall-fattened veal; they bawl to the sound of the harp, they invent new instruments of music like David, they drink wine by the bowlful, and use the finest oil for anointing themselves, but about the ruin of Joseph they do not care at all. That is why they will be the first to be exiled; the sprawlers' revelry is over.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Praise the Lord, my soul!

Second Reading: Timothy 6:11-16

As a man dedicated to God, you must aim to be saintly and religious, filled with faith and love, patient and gentle. Fight the good fight of the faith and win for yourself the eternal life to which you were called when you made your profession and spoke up for the truth in front of many witnesses. Now, before God the source of all life and before Christ, who spoke up as a witness for the truth in front of Pontius Pilate, I put to you the duty of doing all that you have been told, with no faults or failures, until the Appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who at the due time will be revealed by God, the blessed and only Ruler of all, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, who alone is immortal, whose home is in inaccessible light, whom no man has seen and no man is able to see: to him be honour and everlasting power. Amen

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia , alleluia! Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty. Alleluia , alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 16: 19-31 Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to the Pharisees: 'There was a rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and feast magnificently every day. And at his gate there lay a poor man called Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to fill himself with the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even came and licked his sores. Now the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. 'In his torment in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off with Lazarus in his bosom. So he cried out, "Father Abraham, pity me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in these flames". "My son," Abraham replied "remember that during your life good things came your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony. But that is not all: between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, to stop anyone, if he wanted to, crossing from our side to yours, and to stop any crossing from your side to ours." 'The rich man replied, "Father, I beg you then to send Lazarus to my father's house, since I have five brothers, to give them warning so that they do not come to this place of torment too". "They have Moses and the prophets," said Abraham "let them listen to them." "Ah no, father Abraham," said the rich man "but if someone comes to them from the dead, they will repent." Then Abraham said to him, "If they will not listen either to Moses or to the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone should rise from the dead".'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Lazarus & the Rich Man

The New Testament is so clear on the subject of death and its aftermath that the Gospels are almost thematic on the need for serving God faithfully in this life, because after death there is no chance of repentance. Christ's story about Lazarus and the rich man is unmistakable. When the rich man begged Abraham for some relief from his sufferings, the man was told, "My son, remember that during your life good things came your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony." Yet, the rich man had only feasted sumptuously. He didn't hurt Lazarus or other poor people. He just ate too well every day while others starved. That is, he neglected the poor - a sin of omission. And he doesn't say: "This is unfair, I shouldn't be here." He says, 'Have mercy on me. Just get Lazarus to help me.' Where is this man? The answer is not heaven nor hell! St. Teresa says, "There is no love in hell." And yet, this man pleads, not on his own behalf, but for others. "Please send Lazarus back to my five brothers so that they will believe in time." What is very interesting about the story is that it might not be a story! Notice that Jesus raised a man named Lazarus after four days. This might be a parable, but then again Jesus didn't say, 'Let me tell you a parable.' There is no evidence that this is a parable. Also in no parable does Christ name the characters. Here we are told a name and so it could be Lazarus from Bethany who was raised from the dead. It might be a coincidence, but then again, maybe not. What I would suggest is that this is an argument for the existence of purgatory, the purification of sins - including sins of omission - that one incurs before eternal life with God.

Sacrifice of the Mass

- we owe it all to God

CCC 1366 The Eucharist is thus a sacrifice because it re-presents (makes present) the sacrifice of the cross, because it is its memorial and because it applies its fruit. At each Mass we pray for those in Purgatory.

Three ACTS of the MASS

MASS	Offertory	Consecration	Communion
	suffering	death	resurrection
Pasch	Holy Thursday	Good Friday	Easter Sunday

In the Mass we offer bread (food) and wine (drink) that take the place of life, Christ's life, which is offered in an unbloody manner to God the Father. We are meant to offer ourselves with those gifts.

- What will we offer today?
- What did Saint Therese offer?
- Do I give/offer myself daily?
- How did Saint Therese love?

Saint Therese

St Therese of Lisieux was born in Alencon, France in 1873. Aged only 15, she travelled to the Vatican, to personally petition the Pope for permission to be allowed to enter the Convent at this unusually early age. During her short life time St Therese sought to approach God through a path of simplicity and love. She developed a path know as the little way. "You know well enough that Our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions, nor even at their difficulty, but at the love at which we do them." St Therese died of tuberculosis at the early age of 24. However her writings were published after her death and have inspired millions. her death.

"Nothing is sweeter than to think well of others."

LITE HUMOUR

A police officer pulls over to investigate a bloke unloading garbage out of his ute into a ditch. The officer asks: "Why are you dumping garbage in this ditch?" The man replies: "Don't you see the sign?" "Well, yes, but..." "Because it reads" the man insists, "Fine for Dumping Garbage."
