24th November 2019 - Christ the King Sunday (C)

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: II Samuel 5:1-3

All the tribes of Israel then came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel".'

So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:11-20

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light. Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers - all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 23: 35-43 Glory to you O Lord.

The people stayed there watching him. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself'. Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews'. One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Christ the King of the universe

Pope Pius XI instituted the feast of Christ the King when God was being pushed more and more out of the lives of nations, families and individuals. The Pope commented that when the reign of Christ was challenged by secularism, it was opportune to institute a feast of the kingship of Christ.

Pilate therefore said to Him: 'Art thou a king then?' Jesus answered: "I am a king. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world, that I should give testimony to the truth."

INRI on top of Jesus' cross

INRI on top of Jesus' cross on Calvary is the Latin abbreviation of His sentence which means

- I = Jesus (I is the same as J in Latin)
- N = Nazarene
- R = Rex - King
- I = Judaeorum - of the Jews

- King of kings = Jesus Christ
- Kingdom = Church - in heaven, Eternal Kingdom
- Reign = power of divine grace to transform heart
- Royal Subjects = baptized members
- Queen Mother = Mother of God

The kingship or reign of Christ is based on truth, for Christ does not have the truth, as we do, but rather He is the Truth.
