Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128. First Reading: Isaiah 32:15-18

Once more there will be poured on us the spirit from above; then shall the wilderness be fertile land and fertile land become forest. In the wilderness justice will come to live and integrity in the fertile land; integrity will bring peace, justice give lasting security. My people will live in a peaceful home, in safe houses, in quiet dwellings.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord speaks of peace for his people.

Second Reading: 1st Corinthians 12:4-11

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given him by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing, through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognizing spirits; another the gifts of tongues and another the ability to interpret them. All these are the work of the one and the same Spirit, who distributes different gifts to different people just as he chooses.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed the peacemakers: they shall be called children of God. Alleluia

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 12:22-32

Glory to you O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples, 'That is why I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and how you are to clothe it. For life means more than food, and the body more than clothing. Think of the ravens. They do not sow or reap; they have no storehouses or barns; yet God feeds them. And how much more are you worth than the birds! Can any of you, for all his worrying, add a single cubit to his span of life? If the smallest things, therefore, are outside your control, why worry about the rest? Think of the flowers; they never have to spin or weave; yet, I assure you, not even Solomon in all his regalia was robed like one of these. Now if that is how God clothes the grass in the field which is there today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, how much more will he look after you, you men of little faith! But you, you must not set your hearts on things to eat and things to drink; nor must you worry. It is the pagans of this world who set their hearts on these things. Your Father well knows you need them. No; set your hearts on his kingdom, and these other things will be given to you as well. 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.'

On Australia Day here are some notes on Terra Australis.

In 1676, Fr. Victorio Riccio, a Dominican priest, wrote to Rome from the Philippines seeking permission to begin a Mission in Australia. The letter contained much detail and information regarding the country called Terra Australis. And to accompany his request, Fr. Riccio enclosed a hand drawn map (30cm x 40cm) the first ever of the continent of Australia, which he called the fifth part of the world - quinta pars orbis. Fr. Riccio claimed that it was a land of innumerable kingdoms and nations. Dutch explorers had told him that one could walk through the interior of this country for two years without ever seeing the sea.

Many years later in the year 1788, 112 years after Riccio's letter, the British Empire claimed this land as a penal colony for prisoners. Catholics were often deprived of the support of their Church and the Sacraments. The Holy Eucharist, at one stage, was reserved in the Davis house for two whole years until a priest arrived. The Davis home, the 'Holy House of Australia,' became a centre of devotion and prayer. Today one can visit this humble dwelling in The Rocks, Sydney, nearby St. Patrick Church.

HOSPITAL HUMOUR

During post operative rehabilitation a middle-aged man was struggling with severe anxiety. A kind and thoughtful visitation to his bedside by the Legion of Mary revealed the full extent of his problem. The troubled man said that while the medical procedure was being carried out, he gradually became conscious and heard the voice of a young surgeon. 'And what did she say', they asked. 'Well' he said, 'it was only one four letter word.' 'Which one...' they insisted. He whispered with a trembling voice: 'Oops!'
