Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 8:5ff

Philip went to a Samaritan town and proclaimed the Christ to them. The people united in welcoming the message Philip preached, either because they had heard of the miracles he worked or because they saw them for themselves. There were, for example, unclean spirits that came shrieking out of many who were possessed, and several paralytics and cripples were cured. As a result there was great rejoicing in that town. When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, and they went down there, and prayed for the Samaritans to receive the Holy Spirit, for as yet he had not come down on any of them: they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Second Reading: St. Peter 3:15ff

Reverence the Lord Christ in your hearts, and always have your answer ready for people who ask you the reason for the hope that you all have. But give it with courtesy and respect and with a clear conscience, so that those who slander you when you are living a good life in Christ may be proved wrong in the accusations that they bring. And if it is the will of God that you should suffer, it is better to suffer for doing right than for doing wrong. Why, Christ himself, innocent though he was, had died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 14:15-21

Glory to You O Lord
Jesus said to his disciples: 'If you love me you will keep my commandments. I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever, that Spirit of truth whom the world can never receive since it neither sees nor knows him; but you know him, because he is with you, he is in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come back to you. In a short time the world will no longer see me; but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will understand that I am in my Father and you in me and I in you. Anybody who receives my commandments and keeps them will be one who loves me; and anybody who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I shall love him and show myself to him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ACTS follows the GOSPELS

The Gospel was oral long before it was written. The word Gospel is old English for God + spell. The Anglo-Saxon word spellein meaning to tell: God's telling or story. The teachings of our salvation from Jesus Christ were preached and taught before they were ever written down.

The first book after the four Gospels is called the Acts of the Apostles written about 63 AD by Saint Luke, the author of the third Gospel who was not an Apostle and may have never seen Jesus. So what he learnt about Jesus was from oral or preached tradition. His Acts is an historical book recording the birth and expansion of the Church [Acts means the actions and words of the Apostles]. It covers a period of thirty-five years, from the Ascension of the Lord unto St Paul's imprisonment in Rome. For that reason it is filled with Catholic gems and insights worthy of our attention.

Take, for example, today's reading all about Confirmation. The faithful in Samaria had been baptized and were therefore members of the Church but had not yet been confirmed - received the Holy Spirit. So two Apostles [bishops or overseers = episkopoi] go to them and lay hands on them so that they receive the Spirit. What happened then is still happening today.

GOD'S HOLY ALPHABET

Although things are not perfect
Because of trial or pain
Continue in thanksgiving
Do not begin to blame
Even when the times are hard
Fierce winds are bound to blow
God is forever able
Hold on to what you know
Imagine life without His love
Joy would cease to be
Keep thanking Him for all the things
Love imparts to thee
Move out of "Camp Complaining"
No weapon that is known
On earth can yield the power
Praise can do alone
Quit looking at the future
Redeem the time at hand
Start every day with worship
To "thank" is a command
Until we see Him coming
Victorious in the sky
We'll run the race with gratitude
Xalting God most high
Yes, there'll be good times & bad
Zion awaits where none are sad!

What MONEY can buy!

- A bed but not rest.
- A house but not a home.
- Luxuries but not contentment.
- Medicine but not health.
- Amusement but not happiness.
- Food but not appetite.
- A grave ... but not Heaven!

HEARTY HUMOUR

- A young police officer was asked how he would disperse a crowd. He answered: 'Take up a collection! That does it every time at Church!'
- A thief in the very act of stealing with his accomplice said: 'Quick, the police are coming, jump out the window!' His mate said: 'But we are on the 13th floor!' He answered: 'This is not the time to be superstitious!'
