Mass parts in Hymn Book – page 128.

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7–9
You have seduced me, the Lord, and I have let myself be seduced; you have overpowered me: you were the stronger. I am a daily laughing-stock, everybody's butt. Each time I speak the word, I have to howl and proclaim: 'Violence and ruin!' The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long. I used to say, 'I will not think about him, I will not speak in his name any more.' Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones. The effort to restrain it wearied me, I could not bear it.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm:
My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Second Reading: Romans 12:1–2
Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart, that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 16: 21–27

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord;' he said 'this must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.' Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life [soul]? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life? 'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

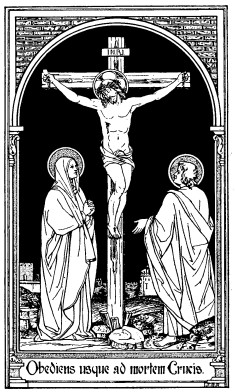
Get behind me Satan...

Our Lord rebuked Simon Peter and called him Satan. Satan means adversary. One who places obstacles in the way of divine grace. Saint Peter who had just been appointed the first pope, for reasons of compassion, wanted his will done rather than God's will. We follow a crucified Christ not a comfortable one. The cross was the motive and purpose of God becoming Man; the cross was the culmination and glory of the Lord. It would not be taken from Him. Satan tempts us and becomes an obstacle to grace, he impedes God's will being done!

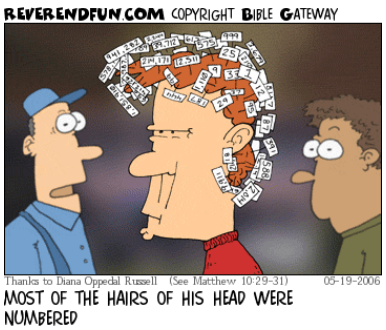


Crutch or a Cross

Some view Church as a support for those who cannot cope with living, somewhat like crutches are to the injured. Our Catholic faith is needed by us, yet in a different manner. A crutch is what one leans on but a cross rests on us. Religion is not an excuse to help us cope but a response that gives life, and life at a price. For the cross that rests on us wears down the pride, lust, selfishness, anger and envy of our egos. Gold needs fire to purify it, our souls need the cross so that we are cleansed and made holy like Christ.

MILD HUMOUR

A small but feisty motorcycle rider of a 185cc Suzuki walks into the pub and complains about the person who had spray painted the front of his bike. He said: "Wait till I meet the idiot who spray painted the front of my bike, I'll let him know a few things..." Suddenly a six foot four bikie stood up in full leathers and chains and said: "And what would those words be... boy!" The rider gulped and said: "Uh, I think the first coat has dried!"



Sacrifice of the Mass - we owe it all to God

CCC 1366 The Eucharist is thus a sacrifice because it re-presents (makes present) the sacrifice of the cross, because it is its memorial and because it applies its fruit. At each Mass we pray for those in Purgatory.

Three ACTS of the MASS

MASS	Offertory	Consecration	Communion
	suffering	death	resurrection
Pasch	Holy Thursday	Good Friday	Easter Sunday

At Holy Mass we offer bread (food) and wine (drink) that take the place of life, Christ's life, which is offered in an unbloody manner to God the Father. We are meant to offer ourselves with those gifts.

MEMORANDA

✍The Will of God never takes you where the grace of God won't protect you.

✍God doesn't call the qualified, He qualifies the called.

✍A coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.
