30th May 2021 - Trinity Sunday

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.
First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:32-34

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: the Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today, so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading: Romans 8:14-17

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out,

'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; the God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 28:16-20
Glory to You O Lord

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Catholic Confirmation

CCC1298-1302: Confirmation begins with the renewal of baptismal promises and the profession of faith by the confirmands. This clearly shows that Confirmation follows Baptism.

The bishop extends his hands over the whole group of the confirmands. Since the time of the apostles, this gesture has signified the gift of the Spirit. Then the sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with chrism on the forehead with the words: 'Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.' The effects are: it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation; it unites us more firmly to Christ; it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us; it renders our bond with the Church more perfect; it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross.

Confirmation and Baptism impart a sacramental character that seals the soul, and as a consequence, they can only be received once.

The Trinity by Rublev-15th century icon

The word Trinity is not in the Bible, yet all Christians believe it. It was the Catholic Church that defined the teachings of the Holy Trinity in early Church Councils.

Catholic Catechism says:

CCC 233 Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity. Three Persons who equally possess the same divine Nature.

- Atheism is a denial of God's existence by means of argumentation, that is flawed - for it is natural to believe in God. Atheism is thus an acquired belief.

- Agnosticism claims that it is impossible to know God or anything about him - a state of indifference. Too many Aussies are agnostics.

IRISH HUMOUR

Ryan & Pat, two Irishmen, worked for the local council and were standing at the base of a flagpole looking up, when a lady walked by and asked them what they were doing. "We're supposed to find out the height of a flagpole. But we don't have a ladder." The woman put down her handbag, pulled out a wrench, loosened the bolts on the plate, let down the pole and then took a tape measure from the same handbag and measured it announcing: "Lads it is 4 metres long." She bid them have a lovely day as she walked away. Ryan turns to Pat and says: "Just like a woman - know it all type!" Pat responds: "Yea, we wanted the height and she tells us the length!"
