First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10:26

As Peter reached the house Cornelius went out to meet him, knelt at his feet and prostrated himself. But Peter helped him up. "Stand up" he said "I am only a man after all!" Then Peter addressed them: "The truth I have now come to realise" he said "is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him." While Peter was still speaking the Holy Spirit came down on all the listeners. Jewish believers who had accompanied Peter were all astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit should be poured out on the pagans too, since they could hear them speaking strange languages and proclaiming the greatness of God. Peter himself then said, "Could anyone refuse the water of baptism to these people, now they have received the Holy Spirit just as much as we have?" He then gave orders for them to be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterwards they begged him to stay on for some days.

"He is not here;
he has risen!"

mean: not our love for God, but God's love for us when he sent his Son to be the sacrifice that takes our sins away.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

15:9-17 Glory to You O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete. This is my commandment: love one another, as I have loved you. A man can have no greater love than to lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends, if you do what I command you. I shall not call you servants any more, because a servant does not know his master's business; I call you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. You did not choose me: no, I chose you; and I commissioned you to go out and to bear fruit, fruit that will last; and then the Father will give you anything you ask him in my name. What I command you is to love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Mother's Day Blessing

God the Father, through his Son, the Virgin Mary's child, has brought joy to all Christian mothers, as they see the hope of eternal life shine on their children. May he bless the mothers of children. As they now thank God for the gift of their children, may they be one with them in thanking him for ever in heaven, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

May is the month of Mary

Pray the Rosary

From the Cross, Jesus said to Mary: "Woman behold your son," then to Saint John (whose mother was also there) "Son, behold your Mother." The use of Woman to address His Mother, indicates that the bond is no longer biological but spiritual. Mary is the New Eve whose obedience to God undoes the disobedience of the first woman. So the Mother of Jesus has become our Mother too. The role of Mary is to bring Jesus to us - with haste - as she brought Jesus to Elizabeth and John the Baptist. She is only concerned with the will of her Son. So pray the Rosary often - especially in May - and pray it today for your mother.

ACTS follows the GOSPELS

The Gospel was oral long before it was written. The word Gospel is old English for God + spell. The Anglo-Saxon word spellein meaning to tell: God's telling or story. The teachings of our salvation from Jesus Christ were preached and taught before they were ever written down. The first book after the four Gospels is called the Acts of the Apostles written about 63 AD by Saint Luke, the author of the third Gospel who was not an Apostle and may have never seen Jesus. So what he learnt about Jesus was from oral or preached tradition. His Acts is an historical book recording the birth and expansion of the Church [Acts means the actions and words of the Apostles]. It covers a period of thirty-five years, from the Ascension of the Lord unto St Paul's imprisonment in Rome. For that reason it is filled with Catholic gems and insights worthy of our attention.

GOD'S HOLY ALPHABET

Although things are not perfect

Because of trial or pain

Continue in thanksgiving

Do not begin to blame

Even when the times are hard

Fierce winds are bound to blow

God is forever able

Hold on to what you know

Imagine life without His love

Joy would cease to be

Keep thanking Him for all the things

Love imparts to thee

Move out of "Camp Complaining"

No weapon that is known

On earth can yield the power

Praise can do alone

Quit looking at the future

Redeem the time at hand

Start every day with worship

To "thank" is a command

Until we see Him coming

Victorious in the sky

We'll run the race with gratitude

Xalting God most high

Yes, there'll be good times & bad

Zion awaits where none are sad!

IRISH HUMOUR

- An Irishman rushed into the pub and asked the barman for a pint of ale before the row begins. Once that went down he requested another pint, just to be sure, before it begins. After half the pint had been consumed, the barman, curious about the so called imminent row, lent on the bar and asked: "What's all this about a row Paddy?" Paddy winced and put down his glass and said: "Sure it is, there will be a row, once you know that I've got no money!"
- Paddy was gathering things for the garage sale. When he brought out the fire extinguisher, Mike said: "What are you doing Paddy, that's a worthless item." Paddy asked: "Why do you call it worthless - I like the red on it!" "Well, Paddy, I bought it a few years ago, and never used it since."
