Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.
First Reading: Prophet Jeremiah 23:1-6

'Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered -

it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them.

Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds - it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost - it is the Lord who speaks! 'See, the days are coming - it is the Lord who speaks - when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The Lord our integrity.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: St Paul Ephesians 2:13-18

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far apart from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God: in his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them and they follow me. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 6: 30-34

Glory to You O Lord

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Direction & Education

In the first reading Jeremiah laments that leaders or shepherds mislead God's people. In his time, when Jerusalem was devastated and God's people were in disarray, confused not knowing where to turn, who to follow, Jeremiah steps up and provides bold leadership. We all need leadership, we all need to be educated. The word education is based on the Latin word to lead: ducere. Thus, the one that leads is the dux. The day we stop learning is the day we die. Everyday is another day to learn something new, to be led and fed.

In the Gospel, the Lord reminds us that He is our true Leader, who calls us to follow Him: "Come away... And He taught them at some length." What joy to be taught by the Lord God. To be led to the truth by He who is the Truth. Since we are constantly learning, ask yourself, who am I following? Who is my leader, teacher or guide? From whom do I source my info? Who do I listen to? What websites, TV shows most influence me?

The teaching branch of the Church is called the Magisterium. The word Magister is Latin for teacher. So the Popes, Church Councils, encyclicals are God's way of teaching us today. Did not Christ himself say: "He who hears you hears me" (Luke 10:16). So tune into and follow the Church as your Mother and Teacher - Mater et Magistra!

Mind Body Soul

Just as our minds need direction so too does our soul. Thus it is a good thing to go and rest for awhile on retreat - to refresh the soul!

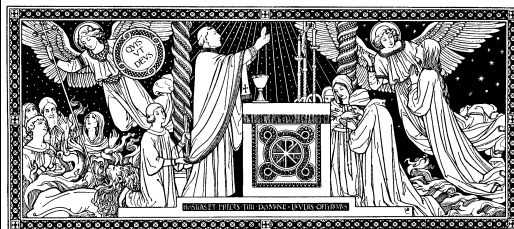

Spiritual Rest = Leisure

Sunday is meant to be our day of rest - leisure time.

Weekly detox program for the soul:

- Step 1 : attend Sunday Mass.
- Step 2 : re-create time.
- Step 3 : avoid materialism.
- Step 4 : contemplate eternity.

HIGH FIVE for SUNDAY MASS

Five REASONS why we need to go to Mass using the name of Jesus as an acronym.

1. We creatures owe Jesus worship.
2. We need to worship Him Every week.
3. It is a mortal Sin to miss Sunday Mass.
4. We gradually slip Under the guise of deceit
5. At death it will console our Soul.

You Never Walk Alone

You never walk alone my friend,
 Though you may think you do;
 For in your sorrow and despair,
 God always walks with you.
 There is no hour or passing day,
 He is not by your side.
 And though unseen He still is there
 To be your friend and guide.
 Whene'er you think you walk alone,
 Reach out and you will find
 The hand of God to show the way
 And bring you peace of mind. H. Holm

AGED HUMOUR

Towards the end of the sermon on mercy, the priest reminded everyone to forgive their enemies. He asked everyone to raise their hands if they have forgiven their enemies. Everyone's hand when up except Mrs Flynn in the front pew. The priest looked at her and asked: "Mrs Flynn, for the love of God, can you not forgive others?" She replied: "I don't have any enemies Father." Amazed, the priest, knowing her age, said: "Mrs Flynn tell me, how can someone live for 92 years and have no enemies?" She smirked and said: "Easy Father... I have outlived the wretches!"
