Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Daniel 12: 1-13

'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Keep me safe, O God, you are my hope.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14

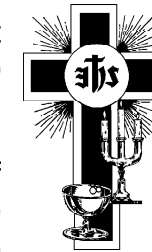

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. He, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place forever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Be watchful, pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 13:24-32

Glory to You O Lord

Jesus said, 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven. 'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

ONE DAY CHRIST WILL RETURN TO JUDGE THE HEAVENS & THE EARTH

- When He comes, we do not know;
- Where He comes, we do not know.

WHY He comes we do know - to defeat the Evil One, to establish His Kingdom forever and to judge the living and the dead.

THERE ARE FIVE SIGNS, HOWEVER, TO INDICATE HIS IMMINENT ARRIVAL;

ALL BASED ON KEY BIBLE TEXTS

In those LAST days...

Few things in this earthly life are absolutely certain except that after death, we shall be judged. Our private judgment will be known at the general judgment, when all men will know us for what we are. Our judgment will depend on how we live this earthly life - how well we use or neglect the talents God has given us. If we have honestly done our best, followed the commandments of Christ, and made the most of every opportunity, we shall be rewarded with the perfect life of Heaven. At the end of the world, when Christ returns, which is called the Parousia, there will be the resurrection of the body and the general judgment. After which this world, as we know it, will cease to be and the just in their glorious bodies will reign with Christ forever in heaven and the wicked suffer in hell.

Some Definitions !

Doctor: A person who kills your ills by pills, and later kills you with his bills.

Boss: Someone who is early when you are late and late when you are early.

Classic: A book which people praise, but do not read.

Marriage: An agreement in which a man loses his bachelors degree and woman gains her masters.

Politician: One who shakes your hand before elections and your confidence after.

AUSSIE HUMOUR

An Irishman when going for a job interview is told that he will have to first pass an IQ test. He asks: 'To be sure, tis fine by me - but what tis that IQ?' 'Well, it's like this,' the manager replies, 'If a person has an IQ of 170 he could go to University. But if the IQ is only 70 he might have trouble tying his shoelaces!' 'Ah,' says the Irishman, 'so that tis why so many Australians wear thongs!'
