Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Isaiah 62: 1-5

About Zion I will not be silent, about Jerusalem I will not grow weary, until her integrity shines out like the dawn and her salvation flames like a torch. The nations then will see your integrity, all the kings your glory, and you will be called by a new name, one which the mouth of the Lord will confer. You are to be a crown of splendour in the hand of the Lord, a princely diadem in the hand of your God; no longer are you to be named 'Forsaken', nor your land 'Abandoned', but you shall be called 'My Delight' and your land 'The Wedded'; for the Lord takes delight in you and your land will have its wedding. Like a young man marrying a virgin, so will the one who built you wed you, and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so will your God rejoice in you.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

Second Reading: 1st Corinthians: 12:4-11

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given him by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing, through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognising spirits; another the gift of tongues and another the ability to interpret them. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, who distributes different gifts to different people just as he chooses.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! God has called us with the Gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 2: 1-11

Glory to You O Lord

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' Jesus said 'Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water', and they filled them to the brim. 'Draw some out now' he told them 'and take it to the steward.' They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from - only the servants who had drawn the water knew - the steward called the bridegroom and said; 'People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best wine till now.' This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Wedding at Cana

Three events are linked: firstly, the feast of the Epiphany which took place in the first year of the Lord's birth; secondly, the baptism of Christ, on the same day thirty years later; thirdly, the wedding at Cana which took place on the same day one year later. At the wedding in Cana Jesus worked his first miracle in the order of nature through Mary and because of her request - motherly love has no limits. When he turned water into wine he used no word, no touch, no gesture, to claim the miracle as his own. 'Fill the water-pots with water.... Draw out now, and bear to the steward.' As a reward for following the advice of Our Lady, "Do whatever he tells you" the stewards at the wedding in Cana were instruments of divine grace. When we listen to her and do God's will we also become, sometimes unwittingly, instruments of God's grace.

Also "Cana" means "zeal," and "Galilee" means "passage." So this marriage is the zealous passage from sin to salvation. "Pass over to me, all who desire me" (Sirach 24:26). And they pass from death to life, i.e., from the state of mortality and misery to the state of immortality and glory: "I make all things new" (Rv 21:5). For that reason there are six jars, for creation took six days, which would come to pass in the new creation of the new wine in the new covenant after the resurrection of the Lord.

HOW WOULD YOU REACT

if you were on a malfunctioning plane?

Pessimist: you refuse the parachute because you might die on the jump anyway.

Optimist: you refuse the parachute because people have survived crashes just like this before.

Procrastinator: you play a game of Monopoly for the parachute.

Bureaucrat: you order them to conduct a feasibility study on parachute use in multi-engine aircraft under code red conditions.

Lawyer: you charge one parachute for helping them sue the airline.

Cana + Calvary

Woman - Hour - Wedding - Selfgiving

The events of Cana are related to those of Calvary. The sign of water turned into wine at Cana already announces the hour of Jesus' glorification. It makes manifest the fulfillment of the wedding feast in the Father's kingdom, where the faithful will drink the new wine that has become the Blood of Christ.

HOSPITAL HUMOUR

A man was fleeing from the hospital just before his operation. "What's the matter?" he was asked. He replied, "I heard the nurse say, 'It's ok, it's a very simple procedure, so don't worry. I'm sure it will be all right.'" "She was just trying to comfort you. What's so frightening about that?" "She wasn't talking to me. She was talking to the surgeon!"
