Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 15:21

Some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, 'Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved'. This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had had a long argument with these men it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the problem with the apostles and elders. Then the apostles and elders decided to choose delegates to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; the whole church concurred with this. They chose Judas known as Barsabbas and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood, and gave them this letter to take with them: 'The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of pagan birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. We hear that some of our members have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds. They acted without any authority from us; and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with Barnabas and Paul, men we highly respect who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written in this letter. It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials: you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols; from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from fornication. Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: O God, let all the nations praise you.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 21:10

In the spirit, he took me to the top of an enormous high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down from God out of heaven. It had all the radiant glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel of crystal-clear diamond. The walls of it were of a great height, and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. I saw that there was no temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple, and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 14:23

Glory to You O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away, and shall return. If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Do not let your hearts be troubled ...

Let us trust in God lest we become fearful. Any and every form of trust implies a source of reliance or dependence. Children trust their parents. We only trust a person or institution that bears the hallmark of authentic authority. The greater the voice of authority the more likely one is to trust, listen and obey. Do people trust the Church today? Does the Church still have authority?

The historical foundations of the Church cannot be shaken nor moved. The Church today is the Church of the twelve Apostles, founded by Christ, who is its Head, guided by the Holy Spirit, who is its Heart, to praise and give glory to the Father, who is its Origin. Of all the thousands of communities that claim Christ to be their Lord, only one Church can claim to have an unbroken chain that links us to Jesus, the King of kings.

The more one studies Church history the more Catholic one becomes. When one probes the trials and tribulations of the Church over the centuries the greater one's conviction that this Church is not of human origin or design. So learn your history, steep yourself in the past, so as to be convinced of the future and be able to trust in God, and not be afraid.

Mary Had a Little Lamb

Mary had a little lamb, his fleece was white as snow. And everywhere that Mary went, the lamb was sure to go. He followed her to school each day, twasn't on the rule. It made children laugh and play, to have a lamb at school. And then the rules all changed one day & illegal it became To bring the Lamb of God to school or to speak his Name. Everyday got worse and worse & days turned into years. Instead of hearing children laugh, we had gunshots & tears What must we do to stop the crime that's in schools today Let's allow the Lamb to return & teach our kids to pray.

Mary Help of Christians
Patroness of Australia

The title "Mary Help of Christians" was coined after the naval battle of Lepanto. At dawn on October 7, at the entrance to the Gulf of Patras, Turkey, the Christian and Muslim fleets finally came face to face. The stakes were Christian Europe. The wind and all military factors favored the Muslims, but Don John was confident. He boarded a fast ship for a final review of his fleet. After he returned to his own position, the wind mysteriously changed to the advantage of the Christian fleet. First-hand witnesses wrote about this moment as a most dramatic turn-of-events resulting from an "unknown factor". At that very moment, at dawn on October 7, 1571 - as Vatican Archives later revealed - Pope Pius V, accompanied by many faithful, was praying the Rosary. Mary did help the Christians to win that crucial battle. Our Aussie feastday dates back to another Pope who was kidnapped in France. In 1814 when Pope Pius VII was released as a prisoner of Napoleon and finally permitted to return to Rome on May 24, he established the feast of Mary, Help of Christians. Some years later, when the Australian Bishops met to discuss who would be a suitable patroness for this country they chose the recently claimed feast day of Mary, Help of Christians.

Secret of the Rosary
by St Louis de Montfort

The short book discusses the views and power of the Rosary. It consists of a number of short sections each being one or two pages long. Each Rose discusses a separate viewpoint about the Rosary and may be addressed to a different section of the prayers said. Hence, although the book is highly readable and unassuming on the surface, it is based on a well structured "multi-perspective analysis" of the Rosary. The fifty three sections are intricately connected and clearly thought out. Hence the term "secret" is quite becoming, for the book reveals these interconnections in terms of a coherent theme. The book has been read by Catholics worldwide for over two centuries and continues to be a great spiritual resource.

Health Humour

An elderly man was seen running out of the hospital just before his procedure. The receptionist asked him: "What's the matter?" He replied, "I heard the nurse say, 'Don't worry, it is a very simple operation, you will be alright.'" She said, "That's normal for her to comfort you beforehand, to put your mind at rest." He replied, "She wasn't talking to me. She was speaking to the surgeon."
