Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 13:52

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats. When the meeting broke up many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them. The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly. 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said: I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.' It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside. But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

We are his people the sheep of his flock.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 7:9 14-17

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia! I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep and mine know me. Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 10: 27-30

Glory to You O Lord
Jesus said: 'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice; I know them and they follow me. I give them eternal life; they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me. The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone, and no one can steal from the Father. The Father and I are one.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Good Shepherd Sunday

Christ is the Good Shepherd who has appointed shepherds for His Church.

The structure of the pastoral scene is:

- ◆ Pope - visible head shepherd
- ◆ Bishop - local chief shepherd
- ◆ Priest - parish shepherd
- ◆ Deacon - trainee shepherd
- ◆ Laity - God's flock

N.B. Shepherds tend their flocks. Be tuned into formed.org. or EWTN or the Catechism of the Catholic Catechism (CCC) to ward off flawed teachings.

Shepherd Alert: Be warned about wolves in Shepherd's clothing.

May is when we pray the Rosary

From the Cross, Jesus said to Mary: "Woman behold your son," then to Saint John (whose mother was also there) "Son, behold your Mother." The use of Woman to address His Mother, indicates that the bond is no longer biological but spiritual. Mary is the New Eve whose obedience to God undoes the disobedience of the first woman. The Mother of Jesus has become our Mother too. So pray the Rosary often - especially in May - and pray it today for your mother.

Mother's Day Blessing

God the Father, through his Son, the Virgin Mary's child, has brought joy to all Christian mothers, as they see the hope of eternal life shine on their children. May he bless the mothers of children. As they now thank God for the gift of their children, may they be one with them in thanking him for ever in heaven, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

HUNGRY HUMOUR

A man walked into a lonely restaurant in a strange town and the waiter came to take his order. Feeling alone, the man said: "meat loaf please, and a kind word." When the waiter returned with the meatloaf, the man said, "Where is the kind word?" The waiter bent down low and whispered, "Don't eat the meatloaf!"

CATECHESIS of the GOOD SHEPHERD

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is rooted in the Bible, the liturgy of the church, and the educational principles of Maria Montessori. Children gather in an "Atrium," a room prepared for them, which contains simple yet beautiful materials they use to help them absorb the most essential proclamations of the Christian faith. You may be wondering how these materials help the religious life of children? If an adult hears a beautiful passage from the Bible, he or she might read it slowly again and again, think deeply about the words and perhaps utter a thankful or hopeful prayer.

A little child, too young to read, needs another way. In an Atrium the child can ponder a biblical passage or a prayer from the liturgy by taking the material for that text and working with it - placing wood figures of sheep in a sheepfold of the Good Shepherd, setting sculpted apostles around a Last Supper table, or preparing a small altar with the furnishings used for Mass. The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a sensorially rich experience for children from the ages of 3-6 years that gives children the opportunity to grow in love and knowledge of God through the Christian tradition. If you have a child who might be interested speak to one of the Catechists.

Nice Boyfriends

One night the daughter brought home her new boyfriend to meet the parents. They were disgusted in his appearance on a motorbike, with leather jacket, tattoos, rings, deadlocks and smelling of alcohol. Later, the parents challenged the girl that he wasn't so nice and placed some doubts on his background. "Oh please, Mum" she replied, "if he wasn't so nice why would he be doing 500 hours of community service?"
