3rd July 2022 - Fourteenth Sunday O.T

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Isaiah 66: 10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her! That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts. For thus says the Lord: Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations. At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted. At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Second Reading: Galatians 6: 14-18.

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God. I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia: May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you. Alleluia, alleluia.

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 10: 1-9

Glory to you O Lord.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

What is the Church?

The Church is the Kingdom of God. Its perfection awaits us in heaven as the eternal Jerusalem.

Which Church did Jesus establish?

Christ is the Head of His Body, the Catholic Church, which has four hall marks or characteristics. We profess in the Creed these 4 marks: the Church is one, holy, catholic & apostolic.

- One: the unicity or oneness of the Church refers to unity in (a) doctrine, (b) government - one Pope, (c) worship - one Mass. [Until the Protestant reformation in the 16th century there was only one Christian Church and one Bible.]
- Holy: the Church's goal is to form future saints, or holy ones, for heaven. Sanctity or holiness requires grace and the seven channels of divine grace are the seven Sacraments.
- Catholic: the Church is catholic which is Greek for universal. As membership, via Baptism, is open to all, irrespective of age, gender or nationality.
- Apostolic: the Church is apostolic in 2 ways: (a) by origin: founded on the twelve apostles & (b) by manner: it is on the mission, striving to save souls.

Peace on earth is our goal but its perfection awaits us in heaven. What we can achieve here is peace of soul. This inner peace comes from Christ alone. At Mass we hear: I leave you peace, my peace I give you. Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom where you live for ever and ever.

We can claim peace of soul is ours when we are one with the faith of the Church.

BULLETIN BLOOPERS

- ♦ Ladies, don't forget the white elephant sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.
- ♦ Don't let worry kill you off - let the Church help.
- ♦ At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be 'What Is Hell?' Come early and listen to our choir practice.
- ♦ Scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.
- ♦ Please place your donation in the envelop along with the deceased person you want remembered.

St Maria Goretti (1890-1902) was the third of seven children of a poor family in Italy who shared a house with another family who had two sons, one was Alessandro. Maria's father died when she was ten. Alessandro was besotted with Maria's beauty and sought to seduce her. When she refused, in blind rage, he stabbed her fourteen times. Before her death a day later, she forgave him. He was sentenced to thirty years in jail, and for the first seven was unrepentant and bitter. After Maria appeared to him in a dream, he changed and was a model prisoner for twenty years. Maria was canonized in 1950. Alessandro died in 1970 after entering a monastery.

MEDICAL HUMOUR

A group of psychiatrists were attending a conference. One said to the others in their group: "People are always coming to me with their guilt and fears, but we have no one to talk to." The others agreed and said why don't we give therapy to each other. So one said: "I must confess that I would really like to kill some of my patients." Another replied: "I love expensive things, so I always overcharge my patients to make more money." The third one said: "I'm involved in the drug trade, so I get my patients to take extra medication." Finally, the last one, said: "I know I am not supposed to, but no matter how hard I try, I can't keep a secret."
