Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2. 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity! For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him. That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 12:13-21.

Glory to you O Lord.

A man in the crowd said to him, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance'. 'My friend,' he replied 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs'. Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time". But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.' The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

WORLD POVERTY

- About 20,000 people die every day of hunger according to UNICEF.
- Yet there is plenty of food in the world for everyone. The problem is distribution, technology & resources, not overpopulation. Remember that one of the most populated countries in the world is Holland which is also one of the most affluent.

- 10% of the world live on $1.90 a day.
- 85% of the world live on $30 a day.

WHERE IS ALL THE MONEY ?

- China, U.K, USA, Europe....
- In the wealthy countries the richest people who are 1% of the world's population own 113 trillion dollars, that is, 46 % of the global wealth.
- The tragedy is that the rich become richer and the poor become poorer! The poorest poor in the world now live in Sub Saharan Africa.

GREED... is a Capital Sin It leads to envy and practical materialism.

CCC 2536 The tenth commandment forbids greed and the desire to amass earthly goods without limit. Thus it is written: "He who loves money never has money enough."

- One result of greed is envy. It refers to the sadness at the sight of other's goods and the immoderate desire to acquire them for oneself, even unjustly.
- It is NOT the owning of things or money that leads to greed or envy but the heart's desires for them. If our heart is set on them then there is no room for others or God.

St Ignatius of Loyola

FEASTDAY 31ST JULY

Born in 1491 at the castle of Loyola in Spain he died at Rome 31 July, 1556.

Ignatius Loyola always walked with a slight limp after being injured while defending the fortress at Pamplona in northern Spain. Slowed down by a lengthy recovery from that injury, he experienced an interior conversion that sent him on ever further journeys, a pilgrim propelled by an abiding devotion to Jesus Christ. Ignatius established the Jesuits, the Company of Jesus. The Pope is a Jesuit - the first one ever.

What is a Grandmother?

(by a three year old girl)

A grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own, so she likes other people's little girls. Grandmothers don't have to do anything except be there. They are old, so they shouldn't play hard or run. Usually they are fat but not too fat to tie the kid's shoes. They wear glasses and funny underwear and they can take their teeth and gums out. It's better if they don't play cards with us. They don't have to be smart, only answer the questions like why dogs hate cats and where is God. When they read to us they don't mind if it is the same story each time. Everyone should try and have one, especially if they don't have Netflix because Grandmothers are the only grown ups who have time.

CRACKED HUMOUR

- A police car pulled alongside a speeding car on the freeway. Glancing at the car, the policeman was astonished to see that the woman behind the wheel was knitting! Realizing that she was oblivious to his flashing lights and siren, he wound down his window and turned on his speaker and yelled. "PULL OVER!" "NO" she yelled back, "IT'S A SCARF!"
- At a business conference, a very dry speaker was presenting his paper and the people slowly got up and walked out. After about ten minutes all but one had left. The man finished his talk, and smiled to the man remaining and said: "Well, at least you remained till the end!" "Not really mate, for I am the next speaker."
