Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

The Lord says this: I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They shall come to witness my glory. I will give them a sign and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Moshech, Rosh, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant islands that have never heard of me or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory to the nations. As an offering to the Lord they will bring all your brothers, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, on dromedaries, from all the nations to my holy mountain in Jerusalem, says the Lord, like Israelites bringing oblations in clean vessels to the Temple of the Lord. And of some of them I will make priests and Levites, says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response: Go out to all the world and tell the Good News!

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7,11-13

Have you forgotten that encouraging text in which you are addressed as sons? My son, when the Lord corrects you, do not treat it lightly; but do not get discouraged when he reprimands you. For the Lord trains the ones that he loves and he punishes all those that he acknowledges as his sons. Suffering is part of your training; God is treating you as his sons. Has there ever been any son whose father did not train him? Of course, any punishment is most painful at the time, and far from pleasant; but later, in those on whom it has been used, it bears fruit in peace and goodness. So hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you tread; then the injured limb will not be wrenched, it will grow strong again.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me. Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 13:22-30.

Glory to you O Lord.

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them, 'Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed. 'Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us" but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from". Then you will find yourself saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets" but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!" 'Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God. 'Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Strive... to enter by the Narrow Door!

Strive lest you do not arrive!

Heaven is not automatic - it involves God's grace and our effort, bearing our cross, being forgiven... If we don't bother to strive.... we may not arrive. The only other option is Hell [Purgatory is prep. for Heaven].

Arguments against Hell

1). It doesn't exist because God is love.

Ans. God is love but God is also mercy and we must seek [strive] to attain mercy in this life before the next.

2). God would not send someone to Hell. Ans. Correct, God sends nobody to Hell. They go there on their own - they go to their own place.

3). Why would God create Hell? Ans. God did not create Hell, sin did. Sin also caused suffering and death, says the Bible (Romans 5:12).

Reasons to believe in Hell

1). In a perfect world Hell makes no sense. But we live in an imperfect world. Heaven is the perfect world where the good are rewarded & Hell is where the unrepentant wicked are punished.

2). Jesus talked more about Hell than Heaven in the Gospels so that we would be warned about its real existence.

3). All Christians of all times have believed in Hell, not to mention Jews and Muslims.

4). The Church is the pillar of Truth (1 Tim 3:15) and it has always taught this dogma of our faith.

5). Hell is not so much a place but a state of existence where God is not - a state of deprivation and unfulfillment.

Saints Augustine & Monica

Mother and son both epitomize the Cross and fidelity to Christ. Monica's perseverance in prayer won the conversion of her husband Patrick and her brilliant son Augustine. In 387 at the age of 32 he was baptized after which she suddenly died. Augustine as Bishop of Hippo in Africa for 35 years would be the most influential writer and preacher of his times. Yet, before his conversion his very salvation was in peril due to lust, pride and power. Gradually over many years and by means of many prayers and exhortations did Monica see the fruit of her labour when Augustine finally renounced his wants and embraced the cross of Christ. A mother's love, in this case, has no limits!

Married Humour

A couple are shopping in a packed mall, and the wife suddenly realises that her husband has disappeared!

Calling him on his mobile so as to ascertain his location, he answers in a calm voice saying: "Dear, you remember the jewellery store we went into about five years ago when you fell in love with that diamond necklace that we could not afford and I told you that I would get it for you one day?"

The wife chokes up and says with a faltering voice, "Yes, dear, I remember... How could I forget." "Well, I'm in the bar next door!"
