Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Wisdom 18: 6-9

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in, they would joyfully take courage. This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you. The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord: that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike; forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2.8-12.

Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was for faith that our ancestors were commended. It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God. It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore. All these died in faith, before receiving any of the things that had been promised, but they saw them in the far distance and welcomed them, recognising that they were only strangers and nomads on earth. People who use such terms about themselves make it quite plain that they are in search of their real homeland. They can hardly have meant the country they came from, since they had the opportunity to go back to it; but in fact they were longing for a better homeland, their heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, since he has founded the city for them. It was by faith that Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He offered to sacrifice his only son even though the promises had been made to him and he had been told: It is through Isaac that your name will be carried on. He was confident that God had the power even to raise the dead; and so, figuratively speaking, he was given back Isaac from the dead.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Be watchful and ready: You know not when the Son of Man is coming!
Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 12:32-48
Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciple: 'See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Saint Mary of the Cross
8th August

She was born in 1842.

Although Mary's ancestry was Scottish, she is Australia's first native born saint. Her father emigrated to Australia where he met his future bride and thus Mary was born. In 1860, Mary became a governess in Penola, South Australia, where she met Father Julian Tenison Woods. Several years later they founded the Congregation of St. Joseph, whose mission was to found schools and orphanages to provide much needed educational outlets. The order even flourished in the face of dissension and conflict. Mary of the Cross suffered from rheumatism for many years and finally died of a stroke on May 25, 1909. After many years, Mary MacKillop was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1995 and canonized on October 17th 2010 by Pope Benedict.

What is faith?

In the eleventh chapter of the Letter to the Hebrews we find a kind of definition of faith which closely links this virtue with hope. The sentence reads as follows: Faith is the substance [or hypostasis] of things hoped for; the proof of things not seen. For the Fathers and for the theologians of the Middle Ages, it was clear that the Greek word hypostasis was to be rendered in Latin with the term substantia. Saint Thomas Aquinas, using the terminology of the philosophical tradition to which he belonged, explains it as follows: faith is a habitus, that is, a stable disposition of the spirit, through which eternal life takes root in us and reason is led to consent to what it does not see. ... Faith is not merely a personal reaching out towards things to come that are still totally absent: it gives us something. It gives us even now something of the reality we are waiting for, and this present reality constitutes for us a proof of the things that are still unseen.

Benedict XVI, Spe Salvi, no 7, 2007

READY & Determined

Many people in sport or the arts achieve high results and receive famous awards because they are supposedly talented. One may surmise that they were just born that way! Well, that is one theory. Others hold that such unique individuals were only average in talent, but became exceptional, because of their determination. The old saying is: Great Success = 30% inspiration + 70% perspiration: that is, it largely depends on hard work. Achieving high results in the spiritual life, or becoming a saint, is much the same. Saint Mary of the Cross had to persevere with much suffering and hatred, but in the end she won because she was filled with determination.

MEMORANDUM

Learn to write your hurts in the sand and to carve your benefits in stone. When somebody hurts us we should write it down in sand, where winds of forgiveness can erase it away. But when somebody does you some good engrave it in stone where no wind can ever erase it. They say, 'It takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, a day to love them, but then an entire life to forget them.' So do not value THINGS you have in your life, but value WHO you have in your life!
