Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128. First Reading: Amos 8: 4-7

Listen to this, you who trample on the needy and try to suppress the poor people of the country, you who say, 'When will New Moon be over so that we can sell our corn, and sabbath, so that we can market our wheat? Then by lowering the bushel, raising the shekel, by swindling and tampering with the scales, we can buy up the poor for money, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and get a price even for the sweepings of the wheat.' The Lord swears it by the pride of Jacob, 'Never will I forget a single thing you have done'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.
Responsorial Psalm

Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

Second Reading: St. Paul to Timothy 2:1-8

My advice is that, first of all, there should be prayers offered for everyone – petitions, intercessions and thanksgiving – and especially for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live religious and reverent lives in peace and quiet. To do this is right, and will please God our saviour: he wants everyone to be saved and reach full knowledge of the truth. For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and mankind, himself a man, Christ Jesus, who sacrificed himself as a ransom for them all. He is the evidence of this, sent at the appointed time, and I have been named a herald and apostle of it and – I am telling the truth and no lie – a teacher of the faith and the truth to the pagans. In every place, then, I want the men to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty. Alleluia.

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 16: 1-13

Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples, 'There was a rich man and he had a steward denounced to him for being wasteful with his property. He called for the man and said, "What is this I hear about you? Draw me up an account of your stewardship because you are not to be my steward any longer." Then the steward said to himself, "Now that my master is taking the stewardship from me, what am I to do? Dig? I am not strong enough. Go begging?

I should be too ashamed. Ah, I know what I will do to make sure that when I am dismissed from office there will be some to welcome me into their homes." Then he called his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, "How much do you owe my master?" "One hundred measures of oil" was the reply. The steward said, "Here, take your bond; sit down straight away and write fifty". To another he said, "And you, sir, how much do you owe?" "One hundred measures of wheat" was the reply. The steward said, "Here, take your bond and write eighty". 'The master praised the dishonest steward for his astuteness. For the children of this world are more astute in dealing with their own kind than are the children of light. 'And so I tell you this: use money, tainted as it is, to win you friends, and thus make sure that when it fails you, they will welcome you into the tents of eternity. The man who can be trusted in little things can be trusted in great; the man who is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in great. If then you cannot be trusted with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches? And if you cannot be trusted with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own? 'No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn. You cannot be the slave both of money. The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Unjust Steward

Parable of divine Insurance!

The Lord is not praising dishonesty but rather the steward's motivation that manifested the following traits:

- ⊙ incentive
- ⊙ ingenuity
- ⊙ enthusiasm

Stewards of light need ENTHUSIASM

The Second Vatican Council clearly said that 'Our task is to help and assist others to know and serve God by witnessing to the truths of Christ. By our good example God's grace will convert them to the fullness of truth in this life so that they may attain eternal happiness. The enthusiasm of Christians in proclaiming Christ is paramount. It should arise from a true joy of the heart. Enthusiasm also comes from a certain conviction that is not discouraged when one encounters a hostile or indifferent attitude. One knows that the Spirit of the Father is speaking through him and knows that he is not proclaiming a human truth, but the "word of God," which has an intrinsic and mysterious power of its own (cf. Rom 1:16).

WHAT are you enthusiastic about?
- apart from football!

Saint Padre Pio

23rd September

He was a mystic, stigmatist, miracle worker, a man who lived an intense union with God. He was canonized in 2002 by Pope John Paul II. But, as the Pope pointed out, the greatest example of intense love for God and at the same time for one's neighbor is in the crucifixion of Jesus. "His mission culminates in the Cross of our Redemption, the sign of his indivisible love for the Father and for humanity." So then, there is no reason for anyone to think that love for God can ever be "to excess" or in any way lead a person to neglect his neighbor. On the contrary, true love for God, true prayer, and a longing for the life of heaven inspire people to undergo great labors out of love for their spouse, family and friends. When the going gets tough the tough get going!

Facts, Faith, Feelings

Which is most important to you?

Chinese Parable.

Fact, Faith and Feeling were walking along a wall. As long as Faith kept his eyes ahead of him on Fact, all three made progress. But when Faith took his eyes off Fact and turned around to see how Feeling was doing, Faith fell off the wall, and Feeling with him.

- Facts: deal with reality.
- Faith: deals with divine truths.
- Feelings: deal in transient emotions.

Try your wit!

♦ First Question: You are participating in a race. You overtake the second person. What position are you in?

Answer: If you answered that you are first, then you are wrong! If you overtake the second person and you take his place, you are second!

♦ Second Question: Mary's father has five daughters: 1. Nana, 2. Nene, 3. Nini, 4. Nono. What is the name of the fifth daughter?

Answer: Nunu? Not really. Her name is Mary. Read the Question again.

Irish Wit

I hired Paddy O'Brien, the arborist, to cut down my trees. He promised he would "send da tree fellers round first ting in da mornin." You guessed it - only two fellers turned up!

At the Irish Pub. 'How did you find your steak Paddy?' the waiter asked. Paddy replied: 'Sure it tis, just lifted one of ta spuds and ter it was'!
