First Reading: Exodus 17: 8-13

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, 'Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile, will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand.' Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses' arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm till sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading: Timothy 3:14-4:2

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures – from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work. Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience – but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! The word of God is living and active; it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart. Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 18:1-8

Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. 'There was a judge in a certain town' he said 'who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death".' And the Lord said 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Perseverance involves resilience.

Often it is this steadfast approach that enables one, with God's grace, to win the battle. Moses was steadfast but not standing - for his weariness overcame his body and thus his arms had to be held up by Aaron and Hur. While his arms were upheld the battle would be won. This bodily posture is one of prayer. In the Divine Liturgy, the priest, interceding for God's people in spiritual battle hold out his arms in prayer, as did Moses. Often when we are weary God's holds us up by his strength. In all situations, however, what remains essential is a fixed will. Perseverance just does not happen. It must be sought and pursued at all costs.

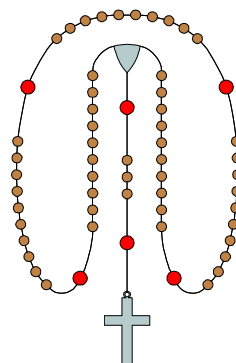

St Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch (Turkey) killed about 110 in Rome. An early Catholic prelate who suffered unto the end.

Each day, pray the Rosary:
for the family that prays together stays together.

Seven Simple Rules

1. Be constant - a daily routine is essential.
2. Try to improve the quality of your prayers
3. Never doubt that God hears your prayers.
4. Avoid distractions & don't become depressed.
5. Listen as much as you speak.
6. Learn from others about prayer.
7. Don't forget - NEVER give up.

SMILE

*Smiling is infectious
You catch it like the flu
When someone smiled at me today
I started smiling too.
I walked around the corner
And someone saw me grin
When he smiled I realised
I had passed it on to him.
I thought about the smile
And then realised its worth
A single smile like mine
Could travel round the earth.
So if you feel a smile begin
Don't leave it undetected
Start the epidemic
And get the world infected!*

Child Humour

It was the little girl's first day at school, and the teacher was filling in some family details, when she asked: "What is your father's name?" "Daddy," replied the little girl. "Yes, I know, but what does your mother call him?" "Oh, she doesn't call him anything. She likes him!"
