Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child. Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing'. Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No", allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Remember the Good News that I carry, 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! For all things give thanks to God, because this is what He expects of you in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 17: 11-19

Glory to you O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests'. Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Sacramental System

Do you KNOW which symbol represents which Sacrament?

The Lamb, Christ, is the source of grace [water]

as mentioned in Revelations 22.1

The Old Testament is never too old

- to learn something new !

Naaman was healed, made NEW by God's grace. He had to bathe SEVEN times in the river. Naaman's healing involved something ORDINARY. He willed to connect the ordinary with God's EXTRAORDINARY grace. To seven or sever is to swear an oath and the Latin word for oath is Sacramentum. Such is the Sacramental System of God's healing power.

BEING GRATEFUL

for what we have means saying thank you often !

The Ten Lepers were all cured. But only the stranger returned to say thank you. Only one used free will to express his gratitude. The other nine who were not strangers did not bother to thank God. Sometimes we too take God's gifts for granted. Sometimes it takes converts to help us cradle Catholics appreciate what we have in the Church of Christ.

Sometimes saying Thank You may require some courage and it may involve some risks.

But, Jesus said "Be not afraid"!

... and that is WHY the chicken crossed the road.

Bible Wit

Q. Who was the greatest female banker in the Bible?

A. Pharaoh's daughter. She went down to the bank of the Nile and drew out a little prophet!

Saint Teresa

Feast on 15th October

St. Teresa of Jesus was born at Avila in Spain on 28 March, 1515 and died in 1582. Teresa was brought up by her saintly father, a lover of serious books, and a tender mother. After entering religious life she became very ill and nearly died. After a prolonged cure she was eventually healed by St. Joseph. During these years of suffering she began the practice of meditation and God blessed her with 'intellectual visions'. One vision depicted hell, a state for those who die in mortal sin - which inspired her to seek a more perfect life. The more she endeavored to do God's will the more powerfully did God work in her soul. The whole city of Avila was troubled by the reports of this nun contained in her autobiography The Life. Teresa also experienced a spiritual piercing and transverberation of the heart, spiritual espousals and the mystical marriage. After many troubles and much opposition she founded numerous convents of Discalced Carmelites. St. Teresa's position among writers on mystical theology is unique. Under obedience she wrote four books which contain the best explanations of prayer and meditation. One is called the Way of Perfection.

Alphonsus Ratisbonne

Atheist to Jesuit

The extraordinary life of Alphonsus Ratisbonne, who was born a French Jew in 1814, and converted miraculously in Rome from an atheist to a fervent Catholic in 1842. Alphonsus became a Jesuit Priest and then founded a religious order in Palestine to convert Jews to Christianity. His conversion was caused by a vision of Our Lady in the Church of Saint Andrew in Rome. At the time, the then French atheist was wearing the miraculous medal. This powerful sacramental is renowned for its efficacious blessings - hence its name.
