Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart - whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord. 'Do not become proud of heart. Do not forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 147:

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

Second Reading: 1st Corinthians 10:16-17

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Sequence for Corpus Christi (short version)

Laud, O Zion, your salvation,
 Laud with hymns of exultation,
 Christ, your king and shepherd true:
 Bring him all the praise you know,
 He is more than you bestow,
 Never can you reach his due.
 Here the new law's new oblation,
 By the new king's revelation,
 Ends the form of ancient rite:

Alleluia, alleluia: I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; if anyone eats this bread he will live for ever. Alleluia, alleluia.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 6: 51-58

Glory to You O Lord

Jesus said to the Jews: 'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.' Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied: 'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him. As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me. This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Feast of Corpus Christi Feast of the Body of Christ

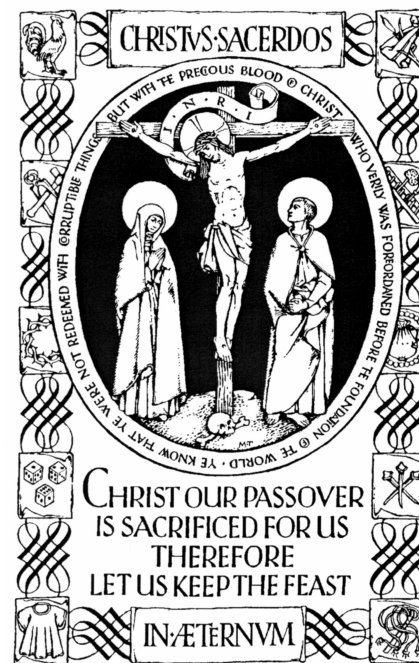

It is ancient and dates back to the 13th Century. Fr. Peter of Prague was offering Mass at the Chapel of St Christine at Bolsena near Orvieto when the host after the consecration began to bleed and the Blood stained the altar and the sacred linen. Some of it was taken to Orvieto where Pope Urban was residing and he declared it a miracle and instituted this feast in honour of the real presence of Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist - Holy Communion. He petitioned a brilliant Theologian, St Thomas Aquinas, to write the hymns and Mass parts - we are singing those hymns today.

Liturgy of the Eucharist in the Mass comprises three phases:

- ♦ Offertory: we offer ourselves with Christ to God the Father;
- ♦ Consecration: we relive the death of Christ now sacramentally re-presented at Lavington;
- ♦ Communion: we draw spiritual life for the soul from the Host, the glorious Body of Christ - a foretaste of our resurrection.

"I am the bread of life.. and my flesh is real" says Jesus.

John 6:48,55

Real Presence

St. Cyril of Jerusalem, in a catechetical lecture given in the middle of the fourth century (350 A.D.), said: "Do not, therefore, regard the bread and wine as simply that; for they are, according to the Master's declaration, the Body and Blood of Christ. Even though the senses suggest to you the other, let faith make you firm. Do not judge in this matter by taste, but be assured by the faith, not doubting that you have been deemed worthy of the Body and Blood of Christ". Jurgens, p. 361. #846.

3 Conditions for Holy Communion so that it is HOLY:

1. Be a baptized Catholic who believes;
2. Be free of mortal/serious sin;
3. Be fasting for 1 hour beforehand.

Doctrine of Transubstantiation explains the presence of Christ in the substance of the consecrated Host while the appearances of 'bread' remain.

CHILD HUMOUR

A little girl, unused to Mass, became restless as the old priest's homily dragged on and on. Finally, she leaned over to her mother and whispered: 'Mummy, if we give him the money now, will he let us go?'
