Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Exodus 19:2-6

From Rephidim the sons of Israel set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp. Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain,
saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagle's wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation."

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99

We are his people, the sheep of his flock

Second Reading: Romans 5:6-11

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man - though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die - but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled, surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia: The kingdom of God is near, repent and believe the Gospel.

Alleluia

Reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 9:36-10:8

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples,
'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.' He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas
Iscariot, the one who was to betray him.
These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows: 'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.
Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus called the Apostles

Do not be afraid!

Courage is vital to our salvation. We need courage to be faithful to Christ in a Godless world. The courage to keep going with the issues of daily living:

- addiction problems;*
- money problems;*
- health problems;*
- relationship problems.*

Courage to believe that we too can be apostolic and bring souls to Christ. The Greek word apostle (apostolein) means to be sent. We are all being sent on a mission by God to bring others to the Lord. So we need to be strong, trusting in God's grace. Courage to change our lives. God helps those who help themselves; that is, those ones who make an effort to do His will. Another word for courage is fortitude. May our hearts be a fortress wherein we trust only in God. All may fail us but God will not

Intercession of the Saints

Saints are the citizens of Heaven. They are our brothers and sisters who dwell with God in the grace dimension of eternity.

MYTH-BREAKERS

- ◆ Catholics worship saints.
- ◆ The saints are dead.
- ◆ God alone desires our prayers.

All the above are myths.

Catholics worship God alone. We have never worshipped humans. We do, however, honour God's children who have excelled in holiness and God is pleased that we do so. After all what father is not honoured when the achievements of his children are extolled? The saints are not dead but more alive than ourselves and more powerful as they dwell in the fullness of God's grace. Just as we ask for help and prayers from friends in our midst the Church reminds us that on a feast-day of a Saint to ask him or her for blessings from God.

BIBLE matters in the MASS

■ Question: Where did the Sign of the Cross come from?

Answer: St Paul said: "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Gal. 6:14). The Bible reminds us to respect the cross. From early days Christians made the sign of the cross on themselves. In the year 211, the Christian Writer Tertullian refers to this common practice: "When lighting the lamps [in Church], when reclining [for a meal], when sitting, in all ordinary occupations of daily lives, we furrow our forehead with the sign [of the cross]" Crown, 3,2.

"Remember our agreement. The first one that prays loses the hole."

HEAVY HUMOUR

Two removalists were struggling with a big crate in a doorway. They pushed and tugged, this way and that, until they were exhausted but it didn't move. Finally, the man on the outside said: "We'd better give up, we'll never get this one in." The fellow on the inside said: "What, do you mean get it in? I thought you were trying to get it out."
