Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 13-16

One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way. She said to her husband, 'Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God. Let us build him a small room on the roof, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.' One day when he came,
he retired to the upper room and lay down. He said to his servant Gehazi, 'Call our Shunammite. Tell her this: "Look, you have gone to all this trouble for us, what can we do for you? Is there anything you would like said for you to the king or to the commander of the army?"' But she replied, 'I live with my own people about me.' 'What can be done for her then?' he asked. Gehazi answered, 'Well, she has no son and her husband is old.' Elisha said, 'Call her.' The servant called her and she stood at the door. This time next year,' he said 'you will hold a son in your arms.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 88

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life. But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him any more.

When he died, he died, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and in that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia: You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people. Praise God who call you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.

Alleluia, alleluia.

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 10:37-42

Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows:
'Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me.
Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me.
Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.
'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me;
and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me. 'Anyone who welcomes a prophet will have a prophet's reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man will have a holy man's reward. 'If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

What is the Church?

The Church is the Kingdom of God. Its perfection awaits us in heaven as the eternal Jerusalem.

Which Church did Jesus establish?

Christ is the Head of His Body, the Catholic Church, which has four hall marks or characteristics. We profess in the Creed these 4 marks: the Church is one, holy, catholic & apostolic.

- One: the unity or oneness of the Church refers to unity in (a) doctrine, (b) government - one Pope, (c) worship - one Mass. [Until the Protestant reformation in the 16th century there was only one Christian Church and one Bible.]
- Holy: the Church's goal is to form future saints, or holy ones, for heaven. Sanctity or holiness requires grace and the seven channels of divine grace are the seven Sacraments.
- Catholic: the Church is catholic which is Greek for universal. As membership, via Baptism, is open to all, irrespective of age, gender or nationality.
- Apostolic: the Church is apostolic in 2 ways: (a) by origin: founded on the twelve apostles & (b) by manner: it is on the mission, striving to save souls.

Peace on earth is our goal but its perfection awaits us in heaven. What we can achieve here is peace of soul. This inner peace comes from Christ alone. At Mass we hear: I leave you peace, my peace I give you. Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom where you live for ever and ever.

We can claim that peace of soul as ours when we are one with the faith of the Church.

St Maria Goretti

(1890-1902) was the third of seven children of a poor family in Italy who shared a house with another family who had two sons, one was Alessandro. Maria's father died when she was ten.

Alessandro was besotted with Maria's beauty and sought to seduce her. When she refused, in blind rage, he stabbed her fourteen times. Before her death a day later, she forgave him. He was sentenced to thirty years in jail, and for the first seven was unrepentant and bitter. After Maria appeared to him in a dream, he changed and was a model prisoner for twenty years. Maria was canonized in 1950. Alessandro died in 1970 after entering a monastery.
