4th June 2023 - Trinity Sunday (A)

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128.

First Reading: Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there. He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'The Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg.
True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Glory and praise for ever more!

Second Reading: II Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is,
who was and who is to come. Alleluia!

A reading

from the holy Gospel according to John 3:16-18

Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus said to Nicodemus: God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Catholic Confirmation

CCC1298-1302: Confirmation begins with the renewal of baptismal promises and the profession of faith by the confirmands. This clearly shows that Confirmation follows Baptism.

The bishop extends his hands over the whole group of the confirmands. Since the time of the apostles, this gesture has signified the gift of the Spirit. Then the sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with chrism on the forehead with the words: 'Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.' The effects are: it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation; it unites us more firmly to Christ; it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us; it renders our bond with the Church more perfect; it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross. Confirmation and Baptism impart a sacramental character that seals the soul, and as a consequence, they can only be received once.

The Trinity by Rublev-15th century icon

The word Trinity is not in the Bible, yet all Christians believe it. It was the Catholic Church that defined the teachings of the Holy Trinity in early Church Councils.

📖 Catholic Catechism says:

CCC 233 Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity. [Three Persons who equally possess the same divine Nature]

- Atheism is a denial of God's existence with supposed argumentation that can be challenged. Remember, it is natural to believe in God; it is contrived to deny Him.
- Agnosticism claims that it is impossible to know God or anything about him - a state of intellectual indifference. Many Australians claim to be agnostics - we can be very lazy, at times.

IRISH HUMOUR

Ryan & Pat, two Irishmen, worked for the local council and were standing at the base of a flagpole looking up, when a lady walked by and asked them what they were doing. "We're supposed to find out ta height of ta flagpole. But we don't have a ladder." The woman put down her handbag, pulled out a wrench, loosened the bolts on the plate, let down the pole and then took a tape measure from the same handbag and measured it announcing: "Lads it is 4 metres long." She bid them have a lovely day as she walked away. Ryan turns to Pat and says: "Just like a woman - know it all type!" Pat responds: "Yea, we wanted the height and she tells us the length!"
