22nd October 2023 - Twenty-ninth Sunday (A)

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1,4-6

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more: It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I am you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 95

Give the Lord glory and honour.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace. We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ. We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia! Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22: 15-21

Glory to You O Lord

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap him in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

'Give unto Ceasar' refers to the Fourth Commandment:

Honour your mother
and your father.

2234 God's fourth commandment also enjoins us to honor all who for our good have received authority in society.

2237 Political authorities are obliged to respect the fundamental rights of the human person. They will dispense justice humanely by respecting the rights of everyone, especially of families and the disadvantaged.

2240 Submission to authority and co-responsibility for the common good make it morally obligatory to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote, and to defend one's country.

2242 The citizen is obliged in conscience not to follow the directives of civil authorities when they are contrary to the demands of the moral order, to the fundamental rights of persons or the teachings of the Gospel. "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." "We must obey God rather than men" Acts 5:29.

Louis & Zélie Martin, parents of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux are saints.

Blessed Louis and Zélie Martin, the parents of Saint Thérèse, were beatified on October 19, 2008 in the basilica dedicated to their daughter at Lisieux in France. The first parents of a saint to be beatified, they are the first spouses in the history of the Church to be proposed for sainthood as a couple and the second to be beatified together. They taught the faith to their children and in particular the youngest daughter, Thérèse, now a doctor of the Church. Zélie and Louis were not declared "blessed" because of Thérèse. She became a saint because of them.

*Smiling is infectious
You catch it like the flu
When someone smiled at me today
I started smiling too.
I walked around the corner
And someone saw me grin
When he smiled I realised
I had passed it on to him.
I thought about the smile
And then realised its worth
A single smile like mine
Could travel round the earth.
So if you feel a smile begin
Don't leave it undetected
Start the epidemic
And get the world infected!*

MISSION: MISSA - MASS

You are sent forth

The mission of Christ the Redeemer, which is entrusted to the Church, is still very far from completion. The number of those who do not know Christ and do not belong to the Church is constantly on the increase. The temptation today is to reduce Christianity to merely human wisdom, a pseudo-science of well-being. Those who are incorporated in the Catholic Church ought to sense their privilege and for that very reason their greater obligation of bearing witness to the faith...

CRICKET HUMOUR

On the day of an important cricket match, the captain calls on one of his players, "Look," he says, "here is $50 go and buy us a new ball or something - anything, to help us win the game!" The match starts and the captain notices the same old ball and calls in the player at the end of an over and asks him what he has done with the money. "Well, you said to do anything to help us win," said the bowler. "Yes, and..." "Well, I gave it to the umpire!"
