Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128 First Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses: "Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. "If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him." If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 17:

I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading: 1st Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22: 34-40

Glory to You O Lord

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

TWO GREAT COMMANDMENTS

Love GOD + Love OTHERS

Among the Pharisees, there existed much discussion about which one of the 613 laws of the Mizvot was the most important. Jesus not wanting to enter into their petty human debates reminds them of God's Law - the Ten Commandments. It consists of two sections: three laws for God and seven for us. Jesus summarized them into two: love of God and love of others. These laws are what we call the Natural Moral Law. This is the same law that is written on our consciences and by it we shall be judged. Respect for others and their things, as well as their good name embraces many of these divine precepts that pertain to us. We are called to follow Christ in this manner, by our words and actions in conformity with His divine Will. The first three commandments, however, refer to God, His Name and divine Worship - that is, attending Holy Mass. To be a faithful Catholic we need to keep the Precepts of the Church CCC 2041:

Mass on Sunday & Holy Days (e.g Christmas, Assumption);
Receive Holy Communion at least once a year;
Confession of mortal sins at least once a year;
Penance on Fridays and fasting (e.g. Lent);
Support the parish (e.g. collections, d.deposit);

When we don't worship God we end up giving honour to something or someone which absorbs our attention and time. It gradually becomes an idol though we don't think of it as such. Too many Australians spend an inordinate amount of time worshipping a game of sport instead of God!

His Sacrifice of the Cross

was not to be forgotten, so He said:

"Do this in remembrance of me!"

It was a command to the Apostles, who in turn would command priests to do this... But what is the this?

■ Is it to celebrate a Last Supper meal as a memorial?

■ Is it to share a banquet and think about His command that: "We should love one another..."?

It means to offer His Sacrifice: The Pope teaches us: "Jesus did not simply state that what he was giving them to eat and drink was his body and his blood; he also expressed its sacrificial meaning and made sacramentally present His Sacrifice which would soon be offered on the Cross for the salvation of all. The Mass is at the same time, and inseparably, the sacrificial memorial in which the sacrifice of the Cross is perpetuated."

HALLOWEEN ONCE MEANT THE EVE OF ALL HALLOWS/ ALL SAINTS

All Saints Day is a surprisingly old feast. It arose out of the Christian tradition of celebrating the martyrdom of saints on the anniversary of their deaths. Pope Gregory IV (827-844) extended the feast to the entire Church and ordered it to be celebrated on November 1st.
