Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128

First Reading: Proverbs 31:10-31

A perfect wife – who can find her? She is far beyond the price of pearls. Her husband's heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit. Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life. She is always busy with wool and with flax, she does her work with eager hands. She sets her hands to the distaff, her fingers grasp the spindle. She holds out her hand to the poor, she opens her arms to the needy. Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty; the woman who is wise is the one to praise. Give her a share in what her hands have worked for, and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm:

Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Reading from 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it. But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia! Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit. Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of Heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. 'The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. 'Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made." "His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." "Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." "Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

What is the opposite of love?

Hate. No, it is indifference!

Being careless and lazy!

Without love there is no heaven !

LAST THINGS: Few things in this earthly life are absolutely certain except that after death, we shall be judged. Our private judgment will be repeated at the general judgment, when all men will know us for what we are. Our judgment will depend on how we live this earthly life of ours - how well we use or neglect the talents God has given us. If we have honestly done our best, followed the commandments of Christ, and made the most of every opportunity, we shall be rewarded with the perfect life of Heaven. If, however, we have disregarded His loving directions and refused to make use of His generous help, we shall condemn ourselves. At the end of the world, when Christ returns, there will be the resurrection of the body and the general judgment. After which this world, as we know it, will cease to be and the just in their glorious bodies will reign with Christ forever in heaven and the wicked suffer everlasting death.

AUSSIE HUMOUR

An Irishman is going for a job interview and is told that he will have to first pass an IQ test. He asks: 'To be sure, tis fine by me - but what tis that IQ?' 'Well, it's like this,' the manager replies, 'If a person has an IQ of 170 he could go to University. But if the IQ is only 70 he might have trouble tying his shoelaces!' 'Ah,' says the Irishman, 'so that tis why so many Australians wear thongs!'

Some Definitions !

Doctor: A person who kills your ills by pills, and later kills you with his bills.

Boss: Someone who is early when you are late and late when you are early.

Classic: A book which people praise, but do not read.

Marriage: An agreement in which a man loses his bachelors degree and woman gains her masters.

Politician: One who shakes your hand before elections and your confidence after.

WHY PRAY FOR THE DEAD?

During the month of November the entire Church prays for the dead, for those who have died in God's grace but remain imperfect and are awaiting heaven.
