14th July 2024 - Fifteenth Sunday Ordinary Time

Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128 First Reading: Prophet Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer;' get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets,' Amos replied to Amaziah 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-10

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved, in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.
Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 6:7-13

Glory to you O Lord

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff
- no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

REPENTANCE

and Salvation

The word repentance in Greek is metanoia which means change your thinking. In other words tune into God's will rather than your own. Change your view or orientation in life and set course for heaven.

The primary reason that Christ, as God, became Man, and entered our world was to redeem us from our sins. The word redeem means to pay back. Another term is atonement: at - one - ment. All sin has been redeemed, including original sin, and paid for by the Precious Blood of our Saviour on the Cross. In July we honour the Blood of Christ. A debt was owing on humanity and the Lord Jesus willingly offered himself as the blood Sacrifice to wipe away all sin. This is what we mean by justification.

One should not confuse redemption with sanctification or salvation. They are connected as a foot is to the leg - yet remain distinct. One may lose their foot but retain their leg. All are redeemed but not all will be saved. Redemption occurred without us but salvation requires our effort. Our holiness or path to heaven involves a constant effort to work with God's grace and avoid sin.

Sin be it personal or original prevents us from being united to God; it is an obstacle to heaven. Even the baptized, once original sin has been removed, need to repent daily of personal sins.

Shroud of Turin: burial cloth of Christ.

These features on the Shroud are unknown markings that baffle science

The negative image on the burial cloth shows greater detail - see side image.

Since arriving in Turin in 1578, the Shroud has only been displayed a few times each century. Security is always a problem with the Shroud. For example, there is strong belief by the authorities in Turin that the April 1997 fire in the Chapel, Cathedral and Royal Palace was intentionally set by an arsonist. In 1978, during a 5 week exhibition, 3.5 million visitors flocked to the city to view the cloth. Organizing such events is always a problem. Most importantly however, exposing the cloth to polluted air and UV light during an exhibition can damage the cloth and the image as well. Even though the Shroud is now stored in a specially designed container to protect and preserve it, too much exhibiting may create serious long term conservation and preservation problems. Recently Pope Francis viewed it. To see great images of the Shroud and to learn more go the website www.shroud.com.

LITE HUMOUR

Before Covid, a man calls his son in London two days before European holidays (August) and says: "I hate to ruin your day, but I have tell you that your mother and I are divorcing: 45 years of misery is enough!" "Dad, what are you talking about?" the son screams. "We can't stand the sight of each other any longer" the father says. "We're sick of each other and I'm sick of talking about this, so call your sister in Leeds and tell her." Frantic the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "Like hell they're getting divorced" she shouts, "I'll take care of this." She calls her dad immediately and yells at him, "You are not getting divorced. Don't do a single thing till I get there. I'm calling my brother back and we'll both be there next week to sort it out. Until then, don't do anything, nothing," and hangs up. The father turns to his wife, "Good news dear... the kids are coming home for their holidays and they're paying their own way this time!"
