Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128

First Reading: Exodus 16:2-15

The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, 'Why did we not die at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our heart's content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!' Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day's portion; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not. 'I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, "Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your heart's content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God.'" And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp. When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, 'What is that?'
not knowing what it was. 'That' said Moses to them
'is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 77: The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus.
You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires. Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God's way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 6: 24-35

Glory to You O Lord

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered: 'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' Jesus answered: 'I tell you most solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' 'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered: 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

"Anyone who eats this bread will live forever..."

Jesus is an uncompromising teacher: I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. In other words, you are not looking for me (for God), you are looking for bread (for yourselves). We might ask ourselves why are we here? What is the reason? What are we looking for - worship (God) or consolation (self)?

Anyone who listens to you listens to me; anyone who rejects you rejects me, and those who reject me reject the one who sent me. (Luke 10:16)

Catholics have always believed that this bread is his flesh. The Church Fathers testify to this very fact. St. Ignatius of Antioch, a disciple and contemporary of the Apostle John, wrote (around 110 A.D.) concerning certain heretics: "they do not confess that the Eucharist is the Flesh of our Savior Jesus Christ, Flesh which suffered for our sins and which the Father, in His goodness, raised up again." Letter to the Smyrneans, 6,2.

Saint Theresse of Lisieux (1873-1897)

"The best means to reach perfection is through receiving Holy Communion frequently."

Physician tells of Eucharistic Miracle of Lanciano

Dr. Edoardo Linoli says he held real cardiac tissue in his hands, when some years ago he analyzed the relics of the Eucharistic miracle of Lanciano, Italy. The phenomenon dates back to the eighth century.

A Basilian Monk had doubts about the real presence of Christ when he pronounced the words of consecration. On this occasion the host was miraculously changed into physical flesh and the wine into physical blood. Later the blood coagulated and the flesh remained the same. These relics were kept in the Cathedral. Linoli was a professor of anatomy, pathological histology, chemistry and clinical microscopy, as well as former head of the Laboratory of Pathological Anatomy at the Hospital of Arezzo. He is the only doctor who has analyzed the relics of the miracle of Lanciano. His findings have stirred interest in the scientific world. Check it out for yourself!

It is Your Life & Your Choices

I gave you life, but cannot live it for you.
I can teach you things, but I cannot make you learn.
I can allow you freedom, but I cannot account for it.
I can take you to Church, but I cannot make you believe.
I can buy you beautiful clothes, but I cannot make you beautiful inside.
I can offer you advice, but I cannot take it for you.
I can give you love, but I cannot force it upon you.
I can teach you, of course, to share, but I cannot make you unselfish.
I can teach you about kindness, but I cannot force you to be gracious.
I can warn you about sins, but I cannot make your morals.
I can love you as a child, but I cannot place you in God's family.
I can tell you how to live, but I cannot give you eternal Life.

LITE HUMOUR

- A priest asked a little boy if he says his prayers every night. 'Yes Father' he replied. 'And do you say them in the morning, when you wake up,' he asked. 'Oh, no Father,' he replied, 'I ain't scared in the daytime!'
- A police car pulled alongside a speeding car on the freeway. Glancing at the car, the policeman was astonished to see that the woman behind the wheel was knitting! Realizing that she was oblivious to his flashing lights and siren, he wound down his window and turned on his speaker and yelled. "PULL OVER!" "NO" she yelled back, "IT'S A SCARF!"
