Mass parts in Hymn Book - page 128

First Reading: Wisdom 2:12-20

The godless say to themselves: 'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man, since he annoys us and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our breaches of the law and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing. 'Let us see if what he says is true, let us observe what kind of end he himself will have. If the virtuous man is God's son, God will take his part and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies. Let us test him with cruelty and with torture, and thus explore this gentleness of his and put his endurance to the proof. Let us condemn him to a shameful death since he will be looked after - we have his word for it.'

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm: The Lord upholds my life.

Second Reading: St James 3:16-4:3

Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done; whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace, and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness. Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves? You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it; when you do pray and don't get it, it is because you have not prayed properly, you have prayed for something to indulge your own desires.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia! God has called us with the Gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia, alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 9: 30-37
Glory to you O Lord

Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him. They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

GREED & AMBITION

7th Commandment: Thou shall not steal.

Be generous & fair to others.

10th Commandment: Thou shall not covet

[desire] your neighbour's goods.

Give thanks to God for what you have.

Warning: Our want of things can grow so much in our hearts that little space remains left for love of God and others.

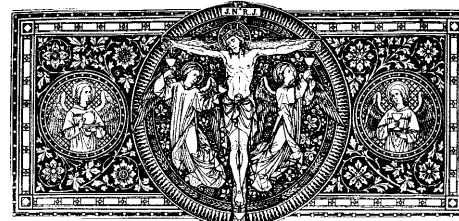

JEALOUSY & ENVY

CCC 2538 Envy can lead to the worst crimes. We fight one another, and envy arms us against one another...

CCC 2539 Envy is a capital sin. It refers to the sadness at the sight of another's goods and the immoderate desire to acquire them for oneself, even unjustly. When it wishes grave harm to a neighbor it is a mortal sin: St. Augustine saw envy as the diabolical sin: "From envy are born hatred, detraction, calumny, joy caused by the misfortune of a neighbor, and displeasure caused by his prosperity."

Good Enough !

All too often Good Enough is where the weak hearts stop. It takes the very best in each for rising to the top. Enough implies just getting by. And good falls short at best. So good enough is average stuff that seldom meets the test. Remember that the choice is yours and you alone choose either. But those who win are those that know that good enough is neither. So good, better, best, never let it rest, til the good is better and the better is best!

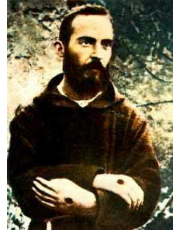

LITE HUMOUR

- Johnny was caught swearing by his teacher. 'Johnny' she said, 'you shouldn't use that kind of language. Where did you hear such talk?' 'My dad said it', he replied. 'Well that doesn't matter. You don't even know what it means! 'I do too!' Johnny replied: 'It means the car won't start!'
- What's the best way to make sure you always remember your wife's birthday? Forget it once!

Saint Padre Pio

23rd September

He was a mystic, miracle worker, a man who lived in intense union with God. He died in 1968 and was canonized in 2002 by Pope John Paul II. He gave a great example of intense love for God and at the same time for one's neighbor. Padre Pio bore the wounds of the crucifixion of Jesus [stigmata] and was renowned for his priestly work in the Confessional. His tomb features below.
